SAT / ARRIVAL

Your Tuscan cycling adventure is about to begin. To ensure that you arrive at your villa safely, we'll collect and transport you from the local station to our world-class villa. You'll be given a full afternoon to explore your local environment; with options to tour our traditional farmhouse villa, the pool area and our immediate surroundings. Once you're settled in and are ready to start your trip, we'll take you into the local town of Cortona for dinner, where you'll enjoy a Tuscan-style dinner.

SUN / CYCLE CORTONA & COUNTRYSIDE

We'll collect you from your accommodation and then embark on the next stage of your journey - travelling into Cortona and the surrounding countryside. The first part of your cycling tour will commence, with an adventurous exploration of the local scenery, across cycle paths and in a way that will allow you to take in all of the views. We're sure that you'll have worked up an appetite and at 1pm, we'll head back into town to enjoy a spot of lunch. You'll then have the opportunity to enjoy a little free time, which you can use to shop, cycle around the area, or relax by one of the captivating landmarks in the region. With your bike and safety gear still available, you will enjoy a leisurely bike ride back to the villa. After a few hours of relaxation time in the pool, interacting with your fellow tour-guests, or taking a pleasant walk or bike ride locally; we'll take you into Cortona for a lovely dinner

Shortly after your introduction, you'll have free time to explore, ingratiate yourself with the locals and partake in activities at your own leisure. We'll then travel to Siena, where you'll meet your tour guide who will fill you with knowledge, expose you to the traditional lifestyle and allow you to get to grips with the town first-hand.

To allow you to take in as much as possible, you'll have a little more free time before your evening meal.
